

2024 Upper Midwest GMC Lay Ministry School

COURSE TITLE: GLOBAL METHODIST HISTORY, POLITY AND THEOLOGY

INSTRUCTOR: The Rev. Dr. Wesley Gabel

COURSE SCHEDULE: 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Saturday, July 13, 2024

COURSE LENGTH: 6 lecture and discussion hours plus four hours of reading/writing

COURSE OVERVIEW: Preparing followers of Jesus Christ to serve in the Global Methodist Church as Certified Lay Ministers with a practical understanding of the gift of full salvation that we can both embrace and share with others.

- Students will learn how the history, polity, and theology of the Global Methodist Church stewards this important work of Christ.
- Students will learn the basics of Wesleyan theology, which are shared in the broader Christian community, and distinctives that are part of the divine calling of Methodism.
- Students will also be offered resources to further their learning.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Define key terms that express aspects of God's saving work in Christ.
2. Give a compelling reason for why God has established the Global Methodist Church to serve his purposes.
3. Describe some of the practices of the Global Methodist Church and the reasons for them.
4. Express why Wesleyan theology relies on 66 books of the Protestant Bible as unique revelation from God that equips God's people for living in a confused and conflicted world.
5. Describe some of the means of grace through which God transforms people into the likeness of Christ.
6. Identify and address some of the doctrinal differences from Wesleyan theology Certified Lay Ministers will encounter in their parish and community.
7. Apply Wesleyan theology in ministering to broken, lost, and hurting people.
8. Acquire resources (people, audio/video, written) to grow understanding and partnership with Christ in ministry.

PRE-COURSE ASSIGNMENTS:

1. REQUIRED: Read The Transitional Book of Doctrines and Discipline (The Global Methodist Church): Transitional-Discipline.2022041257.pdf \(globalmethodist.org\) [PURPOSE: to familiarize yourself with the theology and polity of the GMC]
2. REQUIRED: Read John Wesley's treatise on Baptism (see attachment) [PURPOSE: to witness how Methodism addresses the prominent sacramental view of salvation]
3. REQUIRED: Ask a GMC pastor how the sacramental view of salvation (saved through infant baptism), which was taught in Roman Catholicism, Lutheranism, and Anglicanism, was addressed by Wesley's teaching and ministry? Be prepared to share your answer. [PURPOSE: to provide perspective on Wesleyan thought regarding Salvation]

4. REQUIRED: Read "Chapter 1: A Theology of Church Growth," and "Chapter 2: A Theology of Church Life," from the 2001 doctoral dissertation by the instructor (see attachments) [PURPOSE: to provide students a framework of thought to begin discussions on Wesleyan theology, polity, and doctrine]
5. REQUIRED: Email the instructor (by July 6th) with at least one question from your assigned readings, your discussion with the pastor, or from the topic of GMC history, polity, and theology. [PURPOSE: to prepare a means to address concerns of the students in our sessions]

INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES: This course combines lectures and readings with discussion and personal sharing. More than the information presented, personal relationships formed in these sessions, and continued beyond them, are part of the equipping and empowering work of the Holy Spirit for ministry.

COURSE OUTLINE:

1. Wesleyan Theology: Beginnings - Creation and the Fall
2. Wesleyan Theology: Redemption - God's Pursuit of Estranged and Condemned Children
3. Wesleyan Theology: Revelation – The Word Spoken, Written, and Incarnate
4. Wesleyan Theology: Salvation – The Work of God.
5. GMC History and Distinctive Theology
6. GMC History and Distinctive Polity
7. Doctrinal Questions, Concerns, and Clarity

COURSE SESSIONS:

9:00-10:15 AM: Wesleyan Theology: Beginnings & Redemption

Break

10:30-11:45: Wesleyan Theology: Revelation & Salvation

Lunch Break

1:00-2:15 PM: GMC History & Distinctive Theology and Polity

Break

14:30-15:45: Doctrine & Polity Questions

Break

16:00-17:00: Doctrinal Concerns and Clarity

REQUIRED READING:

Perfect Love: Recovering Entire Sanctification—the Lost Power of the Methodist Movement by Kevin M. Watson

RECOMMENDED READING:

Power Evangelism and Power Healing by John Wimber

Revival Fires by Wesley Deuwel

Wesley and the Wesleyans by John Kent

SELECTED RESOURCES:

Church History in Plain Language by Bruce L. Shelley

Transforming Evangelism: The Wesleyan Way of Sharing Faith by Henry H. Knight II & F. Douglas Powe, Jr,
Discipleship Resources

Essential Bible Study Tools for Ministry by David R. Bauer

Customs and Culture: The Communication of the Christian Faith by Eugene A. Nida

The Question of Canon: Challenging the Status Quo in the New Testament Debate by Michael J. Krueger

The Apostolic Congregation by George Hunter

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR:

Wesley Gabel is married, has four children, three grandchildren and lives in suburban Minneapolis. He received a BA from South Dakota State University (1977), a MDiv from Asbury Theological Seminary (1981), and a DMin from Fuller Theological Seminary (2001). He retired in 2022 after 41 years of service in Minnesota United Methodist churches, where he served in rural, county seat, and urban churches that involved mixed races and cultures. In addition to leading various non-profit organizations, he founded an ecumenical ministry that united churches of various denominations and ethnicities in evangelism, prayer, and service of the poor.